CHRISTMAS FLOWERS Many thanks for all the donations towards Christmas flowers and to the Flower Guild for their flower arrangements, the church looked very festive. Thank you

CHRISTIAN AID CAROL SINGING Thank you to every one who supported the carol singing and to our musicians. We enjoyed singing and collected £270.79

LEARNING TO LISTEN A good way to start the year, come to St Peter's for a QUIET DAY Thursday 24th January 10am to 3pm, coffee from 9.45 to start at 10.15. Full details in the January Lantern page 12 or on poster on notice board at back of church..

NEW YEAR PLANS The next New Daylight notes are now available taking us up to and including Easter through the eyes of those who fail to understand the message of Jesus, as well as those who do. We shall be invited into the experience of living in exile like many of the refugees we see on our screens. Margaret Silf will draw us into the experience of contemplative prayer in an effort to go deeper into our relationship with God, something which we all surely need. £4.50 for four months.

NATIONAL STAR CENTRE – Have sent us a thank you note following our donation to them via the collecting box at coffee time. The sum of £88.22 was collected this time and they thank us for our support, all the donations go towards their work with the young people who have a range of disabilities.

WEDNESDAY SOCIAL GROUP (WSG) - We will be starting the new year on 9th January with entertainment by Peter and Asrtid Cripps—Do come along and join us.—2pm start at URCC

MU NEW YEAR PARTY come and join us - Tuesday (8th) 2pm Small Hall - bring and share tea. All welcome.

CYCLE CODING Taking place at Up Hatherley Village Hall on Sat 12th Jan 2019 for all cycles currently owned and those received as Christmas presents. It's free so come along and get your cycle coded and registered all in one go.
