ELECTORAL ROLL 2019 is the year when all Anglican churches have to renew their electoral roll. Official notices have been posted up in both our buildings and those already on the roll will receive a letter and a form enclosed. . If you are not on the roll and would like to be, as long as you have been baptised (christened) and are over16 and would like to belong to this church family please ask Margaret for a form and fill it in and return by 12 March at the latest.

PRAYER GROUP When the group meets for prayer on Thursdays we pray for all those who have specially asked for prayer, including those listed on the prayer board and in the book in the Prayer Corner for 'long term requests'. It would be lovely to have an update on some of these people, just to know how they are. The three names, Sean Scott, Emma Scott and Robert Day are names who belong to people we don't know and wonder if anyone can give us information please?
