TOMORROW Can you spare half an hour tomorrow (Monday) at 9.00 am to pop up to Warden Hill School and join a small group to pray for the children and staff as they start the new school year. All are welcome.

SORRY NO GIFT AID as we support the School for the Deaf in Dornakal, due to currency regulations. Please continue to donate your money as the Bishop of Dornakal will be with us for the Harvest Festival.

HARVEST LUNCH This will be on 6 October after the morning service. Jacket Potato and a choice of fillings and puddings. Tickets £4 each and available from Debbie Cypher / Ann Johns from Sunday 15 September. If you are able to donate a pudding please can you let Debbie / Ann know. Thanks.

BIBLE STUDY begins 19th September—see Lantern and Leaflets for details.

COME AND ENJOY lunch at Sardar's Café on Wednesday (19th) at 1 pm and then reading together St. Mark's Gospel. Questions welcome, we are all learners

CHELTENHAM LITERATURE FESTIVAL—Can you help?

The Lit Festival is running from 4-13 Oct and, as part of our engagement, there will be a Diocese Chatterbox tent (10-4pm) each day for people to visit. The theme is 'Mysteries' and we'll be making decoders with the children and sending them out on kindness challenges, as well as generally looking for ways to have conversations and build relationships with the local community. But we need some volunteers to help run it each day, or part thereof. Can you help? If so, please let Emma Anderson know: EAnderson@glosdioc.org.uk or speak to Rev Gary.

SYRIAN FAMILY MOVE HOUSE The Abazied family, who are sponsored by the South Cheltenham churches, have recently moved house. The lease on their first house was coming to an end soon, but another convenient house to rent came on the market. They were able to end their first lease without detriment, and moved into their new home on Monday 2nd September.
