THANKS to all who helped with the Heritage Open Day - it was most successful. The donations (over £70 for teas, plus the collection box in Church) have been added to our Harvest Appeal.

RIDE AND STRIDE - 17 people 'signed in' as having 'ticked off' visiting St. Christopher's as they travelled through the area - a record.

WEDNESDAY SOCIAL GROUP our meeting on Wednesday 25th September will consist of a talk by Chris Evans from Dundry Nurseries and he will be judging the plants that we were given a few months ago. Please remember to bring your plant along and join in the fun of the judging – who knows, you may win a prize. All are welcome with or without your plant, we start at 2pm and have tea, coffee, biscuits and a chat after the talk.
Do come along and join us.

CHELTENHAM LITERATURE FESTIVAL—Can you help?

The Lit Festival is running from 4-13 Oct and, as part of our engagement, there will be a Diocese Chatterbox tent (10-4pm) each day for people to visit. The theme is 'Mysteries' and we'll be making decoders with the children and sending them out on kindness challenges, as well as generally looking for ways to have conversations and build relationships with the local community. But we need some volunteers to help run it each day, or part thereof. Can you help? If so, please let Emma Anderson know: EAnderson@glosdioc.org.uk or speak to Rev Gary.

ST PETER'S CHURCH MUSIC FESTIVAL, 'Come and Hear the Music', Saturday 19th October 12-7pm. In aid of Dornakal's School for the Deaf. See Lantern Magazine for more details.
